CLEVER TRAVEL

OUR VALUES

To ensure a long term partnership, we continuously give you an honest and up to date view of the destination and our activities, we only promise what we can keep.

We work exclusively with serious partners locally. It is important for us that drivers and guides receive a reasonable salary while being able to deliver a consistently high service for our clients.

Our owner is personally involved at every step from request for pricing, quotation, booking and payment to execution and delivery on site.

Because of our close collaboration with local partners, the majority of our proposals for activities and hotels are ones that we ourselves have experienced.
